

Oxford Guild of Assassins

Membership Form

Dear prospective assassin,

Please read the Guild's disclaimer, fill in the details and sign below to acknowledge that you participate in all Guild activities at your own risk.

Disclaimer:

The Oxford Guild of Assassins neither commits nor encourages the inhuming of people in reality!

Our assassination games are for amusement only and are good-willed events. Participants must take great care not to harm themselves or others, and furthermore not to damage property or disrupt public, University, or college business.

Even so, there is a risk of accidental injury occurring during participation in Guild games. This is unlikely, but by joining the Guild you agree that these injuries may occur, and that you will not hold the Guild responsible. At all times, you are solely responsible for your actions.

If you genuinely have a desire to kill people, the Guild is not for you and suggests you seek psychiatric help. Post-haste.
